BLVS Planned Giving Program named the Charyn Darby Legacy Society

Smyrna, GA/Feb. 19, 2009/ - Nancy Eaton, Board Chair of Blind & Low Vision Services (BLVS) is proud to announce that its planned giving program has been named the Charyn Darby Legacy Society. According to Eaton, Charyn Darby is one of the organization's most ardent supporters. Darby is the immediate past-Chair of BLVS' Board of Directors. Elected to the Board in 1996, Darby served as Chair from 2000 to 2007. She is owner of North Georgia Trophy and Engraving in Smyrna.

Created to recognize and encourage donors who make a provision for Blind & Low Vision Services in their estate plans, the planned giving program is now known as the Charyn Darby Legacy Society. Last year, Darby donated a beautiful Recognition Tree Sculpture to Blind & Low Vision Services to enable the agency to place names of annual donors on leaves in recognition for their support of the organization's mission.

For further information about the Charyn Darby Legacy Society or how to make a provision in your estate plans for Blind & Low Vision Services please contact Joan M. Stuart, CFRE, Executive Director at 770-432-7280 or jstuart@blvsgeorgia.org.
